

Obituary

Born: Saturday, March 1, 1947

Died: Thursday, February 28, 2019

Kathleen J. Holler died peacefully at home on hospice in Evanston, Wyoming, February 28, 2019, at the age of 72.

Kathy is remembered as a loving mother of five children (Julia of Missouri, Michael of Utah, Jeffrey of Wyoming, Timothy (deceased), and Gregory of South Dakota), grandchildren and great-grandchildren, half-brothers and sisters.

She is also survived by her dear friend for many years, Sam DiGangi, who was by her side.

Kathy was a very intelligent, creative, joyful woman who accomplished much in her personal and professional life. She was a miner/front-end loader for Trona Valley Mines for several years, after which she continued to work to support her family as a real-estate agent, child-support specialist and low-income housing manager. She cultivated many lasting friendships over the years, including Judy of Utah, and Linda of Wyoming.

Kathy lived life to the fullest, touching many, especially those closest to her. All will miss her faith, courage, hope, humor and style, reflected in her beautiful soul.

The Mass of Christian Burial will be 11:00 am Wednesday, March 13, 2019 at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Green River, WY.

There will be a visitation prior to the service at 10:00 am.

Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.
